A WEEKLY JOURNAL, IDENTICAL IN INTEREST WITH ITS OWN PEOPLE.

VOLUME XVII

MT. STERLING, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15, 1908.

NUMBER 40

Prince Rupert 887.

This handsome premium stallion will make the season, of 1908 at the stables of R. Bruce Young's Walnut Grove Stock Farm, 1 1/2 miles North of Mt. Sterling, Ky., at $25.00 to Insure a Living Foal.

Left retained on all colts until season money is paid.

PRINCE RUPERT 887 is the only full brother to the famous deceased sire Chester Dare 10, and the only living horse combining the blood of Black Squirrel 58 and Nannie Garrett 472. You know what this blood did when transmitted through the loins of Chester Dare. Prince Rupert is the superior of his illustrious brother as an individual and his equal as a sire. At the Blue Grass Fair of 1907 he was at the head of the winning herd, stallion and four mares, defeating the best and finest the State produced. At the same fair for foals of 1906 his daughter, Princess, who won everything in front of her as a suckling, was first.

PRINCE RUPERT is a beautiful mahogany bay, full 15 1/2 hands high, and has great natural style, combined with as good and true action as you would wish to see. For five generations on his sire's side Prince Rupert traces to show horses of the first water, and his dam, Nannie Garrett 472, produced five famous show animals; his 2d dam, Nannie, was shown more than twenty times in the model ring, and was never defeated. Nannie Garrett was by Dave Aikin 775 (the sire of the dam of Highland Denmark), and he was out of the dam of the noted Peavine 55.

If you want a show horse, bred to one that is not only a show horse himself, but is backed by generations of show blood.

LEGISLATIVE GRAFT WILL BE PROBED.

Judge Stout Tells Grand Jury to Inquire Into Alleged Bribery.

The investigation of charges of alleged bribery in connection with the recent Legislature is part of the duties imposed on the members of the Franklin county grand jury, according to the charge delivered to that body by Circuit Judge R. L. Stout, of Franklin county.

Judge Stout told the members of the jury that it was a matter of general report that members of the General Assembly had failed to follow the instructions and wishes of the constituents by whom they were elected, and that the report included charges of corruption or bribery of the members, and urged them to sift the reports and charges to the bottom.

Wants Trust and Riders Alike Indicted, if Guilty.

Judge Benton, of Winchester, said to the grand jury: "Trusts and night riders alike are guilty, and if so found they must be punished."

He called the attention of the panel to the recent speech of Gov. Wilson, in which the executive declared that the Commonwealth Attorneys of Kentucky had upon them the responsibility of punishing those responsible for the outrages, and of proceeding against the trust. He instructed the jury to bring in indictments against the guilty.

Want No Other.

N. C. McDonald, merchant, Avon, Ky., says: "I handle several stock foods and hog remedies, but my customers want Burton Hog Cholera Remedy. An epidemic of cholera broke out in this locality and it cured every case in which it was used. Sold by W. S. Lloyd."

Entertained Governor Willson.

Governor Hughes gave a dinner Wednesday night of last week at the executive mansion at Albany, N. Y., to Governor Augustus E. Willson, of Kentucky, who was in Albany on business relative to a case before the Court of Appeals.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurts. 38-5t

May 2nd Senator-elect Bradley and Kentucky's four Republican Congressmen will be entertained by the Republican Club of Washington, D. C.

Let Us Be Misunderstood.

On the conditions existing over the tobacco question, we want to speak plainly, and in a manner not to be misunderstood. The editor of this paper is the editor. His thoughts are his own. The Society of Equity, the Tobacco Trust nor any other interest can dictate a line that appears in the paper. We are in sympathy with the Society of Equity and are opposed to the Tobacco Trust. But before we are for one or against the other, we are for law and order. We condemn the unlawful acts of the night riders as we would any other crime. The doctrine that the end justifies the means is pernicious, and history shows for it nothing but evil results since the dawn of civilization.

We love our neighbors and friends and will do all we can to help them. We can understand how otherwise good men, under great provocation, real or imaginary, will do wrong, but no difference what the cause may be, wrong is never right.—Sun-Sentinel, Winchester.

For Sale.—My residence on West High, 2nd block from Court-house. (31-17) M. R. Hainline.

Hard to Catch.

Taft is in the race for the Republican nomination for the presidency by the whirlwind automobile route, hotly pursued.

The Democratic State Convention of Arizona has been called to meet at Tucson, May 28th.

Conditions Worse Than at Any Time During War.

Conditions in Kentucky are worse than at any time during the Civil war, according to Circuit Judge Watts Parker. He delivered a strong charge to the Fayette grand jury and declared that even the small outrages in the county, such as the poisoning of the cattle of R. M. Squires and the burning of a barnful of horses, must be closely investigated as if human life had been sacrificed.

"We are talked about all over the United States," said Judge Parker, one of the most noted, yet conservative, jurists in the State. "Conditions are deplorable, and when a man or a community feels insecure the law should defend him, though he has the personal right of self defense."

"Many men in Kentucky today go to bed at night and may be submitted to indignities and tortures before morning for something which, in the eyes of the law, is not a misdemeanor even."

ANAEMIA OR POOR BLOOD

Don't Wait Too Long to Correct It—As It Often Leads to Something Worse.

Anaemia is a defective state of the blood in which there is a lack either in quantity or quality of the little red corpuscles.

It may result from any cause that tends to deplete the general system and is recognized by a pale and haggard face—colorless lips, poor circulation and short breath, and the system is at such a low ebb that more serious diseases are easily contracted.

Anaemic people should eat plenty of fruit, eggs, milk, meat, vegetables, good butter and cream, and whole wheat bread, and as for a medicine nothing exceeds our delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol, which is made by a scientific, extractive and concentrating process from fresh cods' livers, combining with peptonate-of-iron, which is a needful constituent for the blood, all the medicinal, healing, body-building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil. Vinol is not a patent medicine, you know what you are taking as all it contains is named on the label.

Any anaemic or run-down person in Mt. Sterling who will follow the above suggestions is sure to be restored to health and strength in a short time. We will return your money if Vinol fails to give satisfaction.

Win. S. Lloyd, Druggist.

Indorsement of President Roosevelt and Gov. Hanly.

The Minister's Retort.

One of our exchanges gives a story of a certain minister as follows: It is said the minister spoken of goes to church on Sunday morning in a carriage. He received an anonymous letter recently calling his attention to the fact that "The Lord never rode to church in a carriage." The minister read the letter from the pulpit and then remarked: "If the writer of this note will come to me next Sunday morning, properly bridled and saddled, I shall be glad to follow the Lord's example and come to church as He entered the city of Jerusalem."

Killing

Opinions of The Saloon Business.

The amount of drinking is much reduced by taking away the temptation to drink that proximity and opportunity afford.—Sec. W. H. Taft.

To my mind all other agencies calculated to destroy the race sink into insignificance compared to the liquor traffic.—U. S. Congressman A. R. Webber.

Nine tenths of our poverty, squalor, vice and crime spring from this poisonous tap root. Society, by its habits, customs and laws, has greased the slope down which these poor creatures slide to perdition.—Gen. Booth, Salvation Army.

Reassured.

The funeral of Judge James E. Cantrell was one of the most largely attended ever held in Georgetown and the services were impressive, being conducted by the Knights Templar and the Confederate Veterans.

Porter—Sax, but hobo nailed all the free lunch.

Bartender—Looks more like he's bolting with it!

In Texas there is a plan on foot to put prohibition in the next State Democratic platform.

Challenge From W. S. Lloyd.

W. S. Lloyd is seeking the worst case of dyspepsia or constipation in Mt. Sterling or vicinity to test Dr. Howard's new specific for the cure of these diseases.

So confident is he that this remarkable medicine will effect a lasting cure within a short time, that he offers to refund the money should it not be successful.

In order to secure the quickest possible introduction W. S. Lloyd will sell a regular fifty cent package of this medicine at half price, 25 cents.

This specific of Dr. Howard's will cure sick headache, dizzy feelings, constipation, dyspepsia and all forms of malaria and liver trouble. It does not simply give relief for a time; it makes permanent and complete cures.

It will regulate the bowels, tone up the whole intestinal tract, give you an appetite, make food go good and digest well, and increase vigor.

Take advantage of W. S. Lloyd challenge and secure a bottle of Dr. Howard's specific half price, with his personal guarantee to refund your money if it does not help you. 38-40

The "drys" are claiming a big victory as a result of the local option elections in Illinois. The large towns went "wet" by reduced majorities, while the rural districts very generally went "dry."

If a 1908 crop of tobacco is off, what will become of the worms?

Business in Mt. Sterling is beginning to look good to the merchants who advertise.

In his instruction to the grand jury Judge A. W. Young did not mince words. The grand jury understood him thoroughly and thoughtful results are looked for.

The "night riders" are the disturbers of the past. Law overriden and crushed to earth is through the officials asserting its powers, and criminals are beginning to tremble.

A good man and correct man as well has said do not magnify your difficulties, rather minimize. If our people would apply such a rule in their lives, Kentucky would have fewer the nameless served than what she bears.

Some time near the beginning of the tobacco trouble, the Advocate predicted that grief would come to the violators of law. It has started at Murray. The night riders used the road last, but now tables have turned and they are in the clutches of the law.

Gov. Willson did the elegant welcoming Gov. John A. Johnson, of Minnesota, to Kentucky. The Jefferson Day banquet was an elaborate affair. Gov. Johnson has many friends in Kentucky, and should he be nominated at Denver for the Presidency he would receive Kentucky's solid vote.

Punch & Graves will extend the show windows of their building on Main street, making that side of the building almost a solid show window. Punch & Graves' building, with this improvement, will be one of the most attractive in the city. These men of pluck and push deserve the enormous trade they now enjoy.

Taft met with a hearty welcome in Kentucky, and the signs of the times are he will walk away with the political plum. Bradley will continue to work for Fairbanks and has said Taft cannot be elected. The negroes are out against Taft with much fierceness and some leaders have gone so far as to declare they will not vote for him if nominated, but they will.

Big sale of shoes last Saturday at Walsh Bros., following the announcement that they would sell 250 pairs of $3.50 shoes for $2.75 the pair Saturday and Saturday only. FACTS AND OBSERVATIONS.

THINGS UP SANDY AND DOWN SANDY.

On Monday night, April 6, at 10 o'clock, the writer left for Ashland. Early in morning he left for Pikeville, 110 miles. Owing to excessive rains the water courses had been out of banks, washouts and landslides had prevented the running of trains. No passengers or mail had passed over the road for 8 days. We were on first train to go through. On this up trip three sets of steps were broken from our car. At a country station a passenger train was delayed from Tuesday morning till Saturday.

FINANCIAL DEPRESSION.

Yes, we heard that there is no market for lumber and most of the coal mines are without orders or running on short time. People said: "Times are Dull."

We made inquiry in different counties along temperance lines. We saw only one man who appeared to be milking.

Pikeville has about 1100 inhabitants and only 1 policeman. He told the writer there had been only one man in jail in 21 months. Were at Prestonsburg one day and a half. Thanks to the intelligence, good business sense and patriotism of these Sandy River counties and towns ABOVE CALLETTSBURG, schools are not blighted. In this respect some Blue Grass counties should learn a lesson from these mountain counties. A prominent citizen of Johnson said that his county will not tolerate blind tigers. The C. O. H. whiskey business is on its last legs on the Big Sandy. Folks in the Blue Grass should quit talking about "mountain people."

Some customs more or less obnoxious should be cut off. Observe what the law sanctions, obey the law, respect the law; help enforce the law; thus peace, protection and contentment in greater degree will abound. This applies to all parts of the State. At Prestonsburg we crossed the new bridge, finished since our last visit. It cost about $22,000 and will be a great money maker. A 3c toll for a footman is preferable to swimming. The ferry now charges one cent; heretofore the price was FIVE. The bridge belongs to Fon Rogers, cashier of bank at Pikeville; May & May, at Prestonsburg, and a few others.

The Bank Josephine, so long in the little frame building, will soon occupy its new, large, up-to-date stone and brick building. A representative from the State Agricultural Department was, with a drag and four mules, showing the citizens how to work the street. This town, like Pikeville, has "awful streets" in spots. The progressive spirit is on, and in due time they will come out of the mire.

PAINTSVILLE.

That government road from the depot to town (about 1 1/2 miles) is a great success. The brick streets will receive their spring cleaning in a few days. Main street is only partially brick—as far as M. E. Church (north, I think) in upper part of town. The contrast "before and after taking" is a sight. The luxury is expensive but evidently worth the price. Paintsville is the best brick-street small town we remember to have ever seen. If any person thinks it is a slouch, he will see a new light if he goes there.

As a mule Jack Bramlet possibly lends any Jack in the county of high-priced mules. Two-thirds of his colts being mares is worthy of note.

See Mr. Moss here court day or drop him a line and receive card of this stock.

J. W. Reid, Claud McClain and James Kendall each sold a bunch of shoats at $3.75 per cwt.

William Crouch has rented 40 acres of corn ground to John Crouch. The former agrees to pay $2.00 per bbl. when raised, to be judged in the shock.

There will be no tobacco raised in this neighborhood this year. Only one man has sowed a bed, and he only about a teaspoonful in a corner of his lettuce bed. But he had a dream that the night riders were after him and it impressed him so he promptly proceeded (his wife says in his sleep) the next day to destroy his own bed, including the lettuce. When conscience does not appeal to people it is well that something else sometimes brings them to their senses.

Simple Home-Made Treatment Said to Overcome Rheumatism.

When an eminent authority announced in the Scranton (Pa.) Times that he had found a new way to treat that dread American disease, Rheumatism, with just common, everyday drugs found in any drug store, the physicians were slow indeed to attach much importance to his claims. This was only a few months ago. Today nearly every newspaper in the country, even the metropolitan dailies, is announcing it and the splendid results achieved. It is so simple that any one can prepare it at home at small cost. It is made up as follows:

Get from any good prescription pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sassafras. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime. These are all simple ingredients, making an absolutely harmless home remedy at little cost.

Rheumatism, as every one knows, is a symptom of deranged kidneys. It is a condition produced by the failure of the kidneys to properly filter or strain from the blood the uric acid and other matter which, if not eradicated, either in the urine or through the skin pores, remains in the blood, decomposes and forms about the joints and muscles, causing the noted suffering and deformity of rheumatism.

This prescription is said to be a splendid healing, cleansing and invigorating tonic to the kidneys, and gives almost immediate relief in all forms of bladder and urinary troubles and backache. He also warns people in a leading New York paper against the discriminate use of many patent medicines.

FIRE IN BOSTON

Ten Thousand People Homeless. Looters Shot Down by the Militia—Many Churches Destroyed.

An area of three hundred and fifty acres of blackened ruins, representing a quarter of the total area of the city marks the scene of a great fire which swept through the business section of Chelsea, Mass., on Sunday turning 10,000 people out of their homes and causing property damage estimated at eight million dollars.

The burned area is guarded by militia. Only three persons are known to have lost their lives. Over half a hundred people are hurt dangerously. Starting from a public dumping ground, the blaze spread straight across the city.

The distance from the point where the fire started to the stop is a mile and a half, and the greatest width of the fire is a half mile. During the fire more than fifty babies were picked up by police, and citizens and taken to police stations. The burned district included a large number of manufacturing concerns, stores, many costly residences churches and public buildings.

That languid, listless feeling that comes with spring and early summer, can be quickly changed to a feeling of buoyancy any energy by the judicious use of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is a genuine tonic to tired, run-down nerves, and but a few doses is needed to satisfy the user that Dr. Shoop's Restorative is actually reaching that tired spot. The indoor life of winter nearly always leads to sluggish bowels, and to sluggish circulation in general. The customary lack of exercise and outdoor air ties up the liver, stagnates the kidneys, and oftentimes weakens the heart's action. Use Dr. Shoop's Restorative a few weeks and all will be changed. A few days test will tell you that you are using the right remedy. You will easily and surely note the change from day to day. Sold by F. C. Dierker.

Wyatt Wants to Play.

Tony Wyatt is anxious to play with the Lexington base ball team during the coming season, and has written Manager Sheets asking for a berth. Wyatt is a shortstop, and is considered one of the best that Mt. Sterling has ever turned out. He is fast on his feet, covers plenty of ground, and is rather good with the stick. Manager Sheets thinks he will be able to find a berth for Wyatt.

Bad Symptoms.

The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, severe imaginary dirt spots or specks floating or dancing before her eyes, has a gnawing distress or heavy full feeling of stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, irritable or painful periods, with or without little catarrhs, is suffering from irregular and painful menstruation that should have every attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Never let or badly treated and such cases often run into maladies which demand the surgeon's knife if they do not remedy.

No medicine exerts such a long, steady, and sure effect on the system as Dr. Pierce's Pink Pills. It cures the most stubborn cases of irregular menstruation, and restores the system to its normal condition. The very best ingredients are used in its composition. No alcohol, no harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in two bits of its ingredients printed on each bottle wrapper and stamped under oath. In any condition of the female system, Dr. Pierce's Pink Pills Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Do much must not be expected of this "Pink Pills Prescription." It will not perform miracles, but it cures humors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Women suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Doctor Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sagaciously confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
 Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (1000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address as above.

SUMMER COON

Tells How the Tobacco Trouble Originated.

What is to be, will be, may the heavens fall. I have bin watching and reading up on the antics of the people of the world avay since I began to git olde enough to notice anything worth a ground hog's attention. when it comes to the long green question, it is bin analyzed on both sides by sum of our best money loving oginted people. I have latly bin reading sum of the fist history of the beginning of our grate fore fathers times, the I hav not got the proper egidation to digest all t e olde history called to the attention of man in their ely times, it is a hard book for the later generations to understand, as the laws and plans of the good master's intention has bin rench out of his hands long ago and put in the devil's hands. those things can be disputed, read gods history first then watch the actions and ways of this dollar loving world, at the beginning when the good master discovered the old world was becoming to sinful and corrupt in selfishness. he tolde nodd to build a fleet large enough to holdle enough seed that was good and pure, and prepair for a big shower, and he would give the olde world a washing out, and then mak a new start with better and purer material, so he mite reep more then sin for his holey kingdom. the good lord I think as far as I understand, good or bad, his intention was for all of his people to shere alike from the sweet of there own brow. this erth was so planed for all of us to live peaceable and honest in untill he seen it to chenge then to another world, whither it would be a better one or a worse one, we will never be able to no untill he calls us to report, but we do no he or sum other power left a law and warning for us to be guided by, and it looks to me that he must be the one we ought to watch more careful, but judging from the antics of the present generation it looks like money must shurely be the only salvation for man, so while nodd was lising to watch the good master was telling him what to do in regard to building his fleet, who in the meen time should step up but olde nick, after lising and ketching on to the conversation going on between the good man, olde nick ups and turns around and sees to himself, if tha are going to give us a bath I will go to sum other part of the worlde and bide myself a fleet to and save enough of my kinde of seed to start up my buiness on, after the wether cleers up, and so he started off and from what we can finle out from the first history of the beginning it is suposed he stoped and comenced work on his fleet where chacego now stands, and after he got his fleet finlised he begin to gather in enough of his kind to start new to in his kind of buiness which was rite to the opposite to the good masters. it was his fleet that protected all kinds of sin and pest like the meclen, snakes bed bugs, & etc. all kinds of other meen things in sin to minnus to mention. there was nothing but the seed of torment and trouble for god's children on his fleet, and from there the grate long green troubles started first, but like a grate many other things that dechips as time passes, sin will rule this world as long as the devel and dollars holds the power over man. we all have the chane and opportunity while here to help the good master to defeat olde nick. wot we do it? no. we can make moor money by sticking to olde nick. thus that I l owed. so you see it will always be a lard task to fight the power out of dollars and olde nicks hands without the use of the master's material, and that we will never get without asking for his help in the rite way. read his history and you can lern what it requires to gain his help, if youre brains is not to hevely overboarded with long green dollars. this olde history I am reading was writing by a man called mr. moore in the ely days of our fore fathers, so git this olde history and read it carefully, and it will inform you where the long green trouble first started, and what started it. the poor people that aint got no hold on any of the land is only in the fight for a little cheep grub which it requires to keep him in shape to do the digging for the money bosses of the land, so thro your pop guns down, riss something to ate this year, let the long green hav a rest this year, git busy in a corn crop, then you will have a little chane to git a hold of the wroofs lat, but I tell you rite now, the longer we fool our time away fooling with long green the worse off we will be. if the majority of the people that ones the tobacco land had to do all the hard work that it requires to raise a crop of the weed with his own labor and could not hire any help then you would see how quick he would drop the crop and try corn and other things that did not require so much hard labor. still on the other hand, that would cut out the chances of the landless men laying up anything for a rainy day. thus that I l owed, say nothing but saw wood, and let hur go galger.

MISS LLOYD'S SPEECH.

People of Louisville: I am wholly unaccustomed to public speech. Hitherto when I wanted a real good speech made, I called upon Brother Powell to make it, and you know he made it well; but Mr. Powell spoke some time this evening and did not say something that I believe needs to be said. I have never written a line for publication. I have never spoken a word off the rostrum of my schoolroom that I did not believe to be needed, and that is my excuse for speaking to you this evening.

I come from the White Barley district, from the county in which the White Barley tobacco was first grown. I believe I know something about these people. I believe I know something about the men in the Barley Tobacco Association Society. I know very little about the Society of Equity. I don't remember that I ever heard the word until some time about last November. I have never been a newspaper reader. I have been a school teacher and I didn't know much about that sort of thing.
But I do know something of the sentiment of the people in Central Kentucky; and, people of Louisville, they suspect you. If you will take them into your confidence, if you will be frank with them, if you will give them the credit for the good there is in them, they will join hands with you and support you loyally. (Applause.) But all over this country, you know, there is suspicion of corporations, and it is abroad in the land, and they say the State government is against us, the city press is against us, and we can not get our cause heard.
Now that is the reason that I call have driven the fellow in brown jeans with his trousers in the top of his boots, to use brute force.

A Voice: Law and order shall prevail.

Mrs. Lloyd—I think law and order shall prevail in Kentucky, and it will prevail when you reach the hearts and consciences of the people, and they are willing to be so reached. I hear a man the other day say with a real quiver in his voice—he is a deacon in a church which Mr. Powell has served—that we do not any more elect a man to office than he sells us out.

I know the city press has not done us justice. I tried to get into the city press, and nothing I have to say and nothing that any of my people have to say is particularly interesting. They don't care to hear it. Mr. Powell admitted to me this morning at breakfast he didn't know anything about the merits of this issue.
Then how in the world is Mr.
Powell going to give you very good advice about what to do in the premises? Mr. Powell is in the position of prescribing for a disease that he does not know what the disease is. He says if you find yourself in a corner and you can not get out by the regular processes of law and order, they cut your way out. Well, I expect that some of the fellows in brown jeans just argue precisely that way. I do not believe I ever saw a night rider. I am absolutely certain I never talked with a night rider, but I tell you what a good man said to me. He said if this sort of thing keeps on and sometimes is not brought to bear night riding is not begun yet. He was close enough to me to make me just start a bit, and I said:
"What makes you say that?" He said: "I know by the way I feel."

As soon as Newman introduced the resolution in the Legislature providing that the Legislature should find out what was the matter, Judge Barnum said he knew what was the matter; that there was a tobacco trust formed, and the Tobacco Trust had the growers by the nape of the neck, and that there was a law on the statute books to prosecute trusts, and there wasn't any need for any more legislation or any investigation. Judge O'Leary said that the Tobacco Trust was the first criminal and that it was equally responsible with the night rider.

Judge Barker told you the same thing, and still you say you are not going to argue the question on its merits; you are not going to disaffect or get the germs of the disease out of the way; you are just going to get some irritant on the boil and allow the poison to stay in the blood and refuse to give a blood purifier.

You want to pass a bill, some of you, to gather up these fellows in brown jeans and bring them down here to try them before a Louisville jury, although you have to make a matter of State record such offenses as would convict the American Tobacco Company of being a trust. And Judge Barnham offered what he called a substitute to the McChord bill. Judge Barnham's idea of a substitute reminds me of what a certain woman said to her maid. Madame said:
"We must have our meals on time and you must have them ready. I am going to give you a clock." The servant replied: "I would rather have a clothes wringer." So we asked for a clock and Judge Barnham offered us a clothes wringer for a substitute.

I do not want to have to go back to Central Kentucky and when they ask me, "What did they do down there at that meeting? Did they take any notice of our rights?" say, "No; they just said you didn't have anything to do with it; they were going to catch that fellow and put him in the penitentiary, and there wasn't anything coming to you anyhow, and just sit down and keep still." I will tell you, those farmers will clinch their teeth a little tighter, and, Christian people of Louisville, you are managing night riders, out of those good men. I wouldn't tell you if I didn't believe it. I believe it with all my heart. I have tried to do my duty as a Christian, as a teacher and as a member of the church and a worker in the church organizations, and I will tell you I have no conviction any deeper than if the city pulpit and the city press and the State administration and recognized the right of these tobacco growers there never would have been a crime committed in the Blue Grass region. I didn't think it would come. When I first heard of those things over there in the dark belt of the Western part of the State I said to my mother, "That is what comes of an atmosphere." I said: "They have had nine strikes over there and have had those strikes in their minds when these raids come up." And I never was more surprised in my life than when this thing broke out in the Blue Grass region.

One of the speakers asked the question, "Am I my brother's keeper?"

Suppose a corporation in New York with five hundred million dollars walks up to a farmer out in the tobacco district and offers him five cents for the crop, and the man answers, "Why, it costs me seven cents," and the agent of the trust says, "Well, that is all I will give," and walks away and leave him humiliated; and walks up to all those poor farmers, walks up to gentlemen and brow-beats them and humiliates them and robs them, men, the latches of whose shoes they are not worthy to stoop down and loosen. Is the American Tobacco Company an illegal trust doing business against the United States?

A Voice—Don't you believe if the anti-trust law was enforced that there wouldn't be crime in Kentucky? If Judge Humphrey and the courts and the law would enforce the anti-trust law, would there be any crime in Kentucky?

Miss Lloyd—If they will pass the McChord bill they will stop it.
A Voice—I rise to a point of order. Both orders. They are neither one of them speaking upon the question before the house.

Miss Lloyd—I have not prepared a speech. I have very little more to say, but I ask the Christian people in this audience to recognize the Christian pulse and heart-beat of the people in Central Kentucky in the Barley Tobacco Society and I ask you to help them.

Nervous Worn-Out

If you are in this condition, your nerve force is weak—the power is giving out, the organs of your body have "sloped up," and do their work imperfectly. This failure to do the work required, clogs the system and brings distress and disease. When the nerves are weak the heart is unable to force the life-giving blood through your veins; the stomach fails to digest food; the kidneys lack power to filter impurities from the blood, and the poisonous waste remains in the system to breed disease.
Nerve energy must be restored.
Dr. Cline's Nerve Tonic is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the rest of your system. If it fails, he will refund your money.

Several years ago I was all broken down. I was nervous, could not sleep, and was in constant pain.
Dr. Cline's Nerve Tonic, and finally the doctor said he could do nothing for me. I began to feel better, and became strong and healthy, and now, well, I feel the tonic.

McDonald Chief No. 1451

Will make the season of 1908 at my place on the Levee Pike, within city limits, at $20 to insure a Living Colt.
McDONALD CHIEF is a dark bay with black legs, black mane and tail, and carries his tail to perfection. He stands full 15½ hands high, standard measure, sound and sound as much natural style, all-around action, extreme finish, bone and substance as any living horse. Life is too short to experiment with breeding. No horse can be recognized as a sire until the results prove his rights. Perhaps no horse has sired colts more uniformly, plentifully with such unquestionable action and con-rage or commanding higher prices. Mr.
John T. Hughes sold two geldings by him in 1905 a 3-year-old to a New York gentleman for $1,000 and a 3-year-old to Chicago for $500. He is the sire of "Martin Bros.", "Daisy", "Jim and Hughes", a 3-year-old stallion, Red McDonald. His sons and daughters have demonstrated that they are show horses. They have won premiums both in saddle and harness classes at Lexington and all the prominent fairs of the Blue Grass Circuit. Louisville Horse Show and Madison Square Garden, New York. His dam, Lady Mc-Clelland, was one of the greatest show mares Kentucky has ever produced. His 2d, 3d and 4th dams were great show famous brood mares. His illustrious sire, Rex McDonald, is too well known to the breeders of Kentucky for us to say other than he is the sire of more fancy, high-priced show horses than any stallion living or dead, and the greatest show horse the world has ever known. As a show horse McDonald Chief has a record equaled by few stallions of his age, winning at Lexington and all the principal fairs of Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana, winning at St. Louis Fair and Kansas City Horse Show in his 3-year-old form.

The Editor and the Doctor.

The following is again going the rounds:

If an editor makes a mistake he has to apologize for it, but if a doctor makes a mistake he buries it.

If the editor makes one there is a lawsuit, swearing and the smell of sulphur, but if the doctor makes one there is a funeral, cut flowers and a smell of varnish.

A doctor can use a word a yard long without knowing what it means, but if the editor uses it he has to spell it.

If the doctor goes to see another man's wife he charges for the visit, but if the editor goes to see another man's wife he gets a charge of buckshot.

When a doctor gets drunk, it's a case of "overcome by heat," and if he dies it is heart trouble.

When an editor gets drunk it's a case of too much booze, and if he dies it's a case of delirium tremens.
Any old college can make a doctor.

You can't make an editor, he has to be born.—Ex.

Prosperity on the Increase in the City of Lebanon.

To the Editor of the Courier-ness firms in Lebanon, Ky., declare the statements published in an interview in the Courier-Journal dated March 14, 1908, in regard to the depression of business here since local option became effective last May, are wholly without foundation and false in every particular. The town has never been business has steadily increased.

lawlessness existing in the city than

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS.

Do Not Endanger Life When a Mt. Sterling Citizen Shows
You the Cure.

Why will the people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one of the symptoms of kidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in.
Read this Mt. Sterling testimony:

Chas. Wilson, living at 14 Richmond Ave., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "At my work I am on my feet nearly all the time and it seemed to weaken my kidneys and cause my back to ache. My bladder became affected and I was annoyed by a too frequent action of kidney secretions, which interfered with my rest at night. I was finally told to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial, and procured a box at F. C. Duerson's drug store. I derived permanent relief from the kidney irregularity and the pains through my back disappeared. I am pleased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others as I know they can be depended upon."

Late Easter.

Easter comes later this year than it has for a century or more.

The date of the first great Christian feast day is determined by the first Sunday after the full moon, which happens upon or next after March 21st, so that the date may be as early as March 21, or as late as April 25th. This year there is a full moon on April 16th and the following Sunday is the 19th, Easter day.

About twenty-five years ago Easter Sunday fell on April 18th.
